General Business

- Thanks to Jenny and Graeme for many years of dedicated service to our P&C. We hope to continue their involvement!
- Kylie Barker: next year's Yr 7 Year adviser. Orientation will be at 1pm for BBQ, tour starts at 2pm, Sunday 3rd June. Can be easier to showcase the school in daylight, eg the gym, the canoes, ? ag animals, GVBR, Duke of Ed, Driver Ed, debating, etc. Also will have a BBQ. P&C should be there – collect email addresses, talk about Canteen, homework centre. Lynda to do P&C flyer to give out.
- Colour run...to be decided by P&C. Kylie to communicate with Sue if colour run is to go ahead.
- FRRR Seeds of renewal opens 2/7/18. ? put in for trailer again. $5000.
- Glen to speak to staff re wish list, to circulate within a fortnight. .
- Christina went to Bendigo Bank night for grants; applications to be in for 30/6/18.
- Local dental advertising for applications for grants. Glen to advise Lynda as soon as wish list items received, applications close end of May.
- Public Education Foundation: provides scholarships to principals, teachers and students. Glen to pass on to Donna.
- Christina feeding back from school community: apparently difficulty getting senior jumpers. Hate of the hoodie under the jumper. Uniform review still underway although may have stalled with SRC. Meeting was held with SRC last year. Kylie and Donna chairing the group. Uniform sets a standard for the school. Also concerns re black jeans and short shorts. Bullying issues and how they have been dealt with. Parents can also go directly to Glen if concerns not being addressed.

6. Meeting closed 7.32pm.

7. Next meeting Tues 26th June, 6 pm.
